

Raining Cats and Dogs

Page 435 – Project WET guide

As you meet other participants, match one of the following water phrases with the illustration they have drawn on an index card. After confirming if you are correct, write their name next to that phrase. Several participants may have the same phrase.

Have fun meeting everyone!!

It's water over the dam_____

Treading water_____

Still water runs deep_____

Like water off a duck's back_____

Muddy the waters_____

In hot water_____

Water under the bridge_____

Troubles waters_____

Throw cold water on it_____

You can lead a horse to water but you can't make it drink_____

Like a duck to water_____

Water, water everywhere but not a drop to drink_____

Cross that bridge when we get there_____

Burn your bridges behind you_____

Get your feet wet_____

Somebody is "all wet"_____

Walking on thin ice_____

Break the ice_____

Tip of the iceberg_____

Sink or swim_____

Something smells fishy_____

Wash my hands of the whole matter_____

One hand washed the other_____

Raining like cats and dogs_____

When it rains it pours_____

Wet behind the ears_____

Up the creek without a paddle_____

Steamed up_____

The well's run dry_____

He is a drip_____

A drop in the bucket_____

On cloud nine_____

Jump in with both feet_____

Having a rippling effect_____

Down the drain_____

Change horses in mid stream_____

When our ship comes in_____

Took it hook, line and sinker_____

Something snowballs_____

Sandbagging_____

A flood of tears_____

A stepping-stone to something_____

Find you sea legs_____

Make a big splash_____

Madder than a wet hen_____

Mind in a fog_____

Blood is thicker than water_____

Crying buckets_____

Get your ducks in a row_____

Icy stare_____

Wet your whistle_____